

PROTOCOL FOR VIDEO/AUDIO HEARINGS

GENERAL: For hearings to be held by video technology, no participant will be physically present in the courtroom unless given prior approval to do so by the Court. Video Technology allows all participants to fully take part in the hearing by clicking on the video link or by calling the telephone number. The video connection requires a computer or smartphone equipped with a camera and microphone/ speakers. The use of a smartphone requires the user to download the video application. No download is required to join using a computer or laptop; it can be accessed by any internet browser.

It remains each participant’s duty to update the relevant Court office with up-to-date contact information, including e-mail. It is the responsibility of counsel or self-represented persons to notify and share with any witnesses the link or phone information necessary for them to join the hearing at the time of their testimony.

All defendants are advised that they must appear in person for sentencing, unless otherwise ordered, or a bench warrant may issue for their arrest.

3. The host will allow discussion between advocates prior to the judge joining the hearing.
4. Witnesses need not be in the video until called to testify, but may be present unless sequestration has been requested. If same is requested, witnesses may wait in the virtual lobby where they cannot see or hear the proceedings.
5. All proceedings held via video are open to the public except where required by law to be a closed proceeding (such as juvenile matters). The public may access any such public hearing by logging in at the appropriate time to the respective judge's link listed above. All viewers are notified that they shall not cause any disruption to the proceedings at risk of being expelled from same.
6. Absolutely NO recording of the proceeding is allowed, to include video, audio, or screen shots. A court reporter will be at the hearing via video to make an official record the proceeding. Violation of this prohibition is a criminal offense and/or contempt of court and will subject the violator to penalties and sanctions.
