ELECTRONIC FILING AND SERVICE OF LEGAL PAPERS

RULE 205.4 Electronic Filing and Service of Legal Papers Filed in the Civil Trial Division

(a)(1) The Cumberland County Court of Common Pleas does hereby permit electronic filing of all legal papers with the Prothonotary through its Electronic Filing System, as well as the electronic service of such papers, under terms more specifically provided in Pennsylvania Rule of Civil Procedure 205.4 and Cumberland County Rule of Procedure 205.4.

The Prothonotary's Office will provide the necessary technical assistance to those parties who lack the capability to file legal papers electronically.

(2) As used in this rule, the following words shall have the following meanings: "electronic filing" shall be the electronic transmission of legal papers by means other than facsimile transmission; "filing party" shall be an attorney, party or other person who files a legal paper by means of electronic filing; and "legal paper" shall be a pleading or other paper filed with the Prothonotary in any civil action, including attachments and exhibits, even if the legal papers are not adversarial in nature or do not require a response from the non-filing party or parties.

(b) Legal papers shall be presented for filing in a portable document format ("PDF"). As authorized by Pa.R.C.P. 205.4 (b)(1), in the event a legal paper is presented for filing in a hard-copy format or an electronic format other than a PDF, the Prothonotary shall convert said legal paper into a PDF and shall maintain it in that format. The Prothonotary shall return the hard-copy legal paper to the filing party for retention as required by Pa.R.C.P. 205.4(b)(4).

(c)(1) The Prothonotary shall provide access to its Electronic Filing System at all times, except during periods of required maintenance.

(2) All legal papers shall be filed electronically through the Electronic Filing System, which will be accessible through the Cumberland County website, www.ccpa.net/prothonotary. To obtain access to the Electronic Filing System, counsel or any unrepresented party must first register with the Prothonotary's Office for a User Name and Password.

(3) The time and date of filing a legal paper and any receipt of the legal paper filed electronically shall be that registered by the Electronic Filing System. The Prothonotary shall provide, through the Electronic Filing System's website, an acknowledgement that the legal paper has been received, including the date and time of receipt, in a form which can be printed for retention by the filing party.

(d) A filing party shall pay the cost of the electronic filing of a legal paper by approved credit or debit card, or by advance deposit of sufficient funds with the Prothonotary. The following cards have been approved for payment of the electronic filing: American Express, Discover, MasterCard and Visa.

(e)(1) A filing party shall be responsible for any delay, disruption, interruption of the electronic signals and legibility of the document electronically filed, except when caused by the failure of the Electronic Filing System's website.

(2) No pleading or other legal paper that complies with the Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure shall be refused for filing by the Prothonotary or the Electronic Filing System based upon a requirement of a local rule or local administrative procedure or practice pertaining to the electronic filing of legal papers.

(3) If a pleading or other legal paper is not accepted upon presentation for filing or is refused for filing by the Electronic Filing System, the Prothonotary by email, or the Electronic Filing System, as may be appropriate, shall immediately notify the party presenting the legal paper for filing of the date of presentation, the fact that the document was not accepted or refused for filing by the system, and the reason therefor.

(4)(i) The Court upon motion shall resolve any dispute arising under paragraphs (1) and (2) of this subdivision.

(ii) If a party makes a good faith effort to electronically file a legal paper but it is not received, accepted or filed by the Electronic Filing System, the Court may order that the paper be accepted and filed nunc pro tunc upon a showing that reasonable efforts were made to timely present and file the paper.

(f) As authorized by Pa.R.C.P. 205.4(f), the following administrative procedures are adopted:

(1) The electronic filing of legal papers using an authorized User Name and Password shall constitute the filing party's signature on electronic documents as provided by Pa.R.C.P. 1023.1 and, if the filing party is an attorney, shall constitute a certification of authorization to file it as provided in Pa.R.C.P. 205.1.

(2) Verification of pleadings, as required by Pa.R.C.P. 206.3 and 1024, as well as any other documents executed by the client or third parties, such as Affidavits or Certificates of Service, shall be scanned and attached to the electronic filing in a PDF at the time the legal paper is submitted for electronic filing.

(3) Personal Identifiers in civil matters, such as Social Security numbers, dates of birth, financial account numbers and names of minor children, shall be modified or partially redacted in all documents electronically filed in the office. When necessary, the Prothonotary shall obtain a hard copy of the unredacted information and maintain such information in a closed folder for inspection by the Court; such unredacted information shall not be made available on the Electronic Case Filing System.

(4) The Prothonotary is authorized to refuse for filing a legal paper submitted without the requisite filing fee; such legal paper shall only be deemed to have been filed on the date that said filing fee payment was received by the Prothonotary.

(5) Neither the Court nor the Prothonotary shall be required to maintain a hard copy of any legal paper, notice or Order filed or maintained electronically under this Rule.

(g)(1) Copies of all legal papers other than original process filed in an action or served upon any party to an action may be served:

(i) as provided by Rule 440; or

(ii) by electronic transmission, other than facsimile transmission, to all parties who have previously submitted electronic filing in the same case, pursuant to Cumberland County Civil Rule 205.4 and Pa.R.C.P. 205.4(g).

(2) Service by electronic transmission is complete when a legal paper is sent:

(i) to the recipient's electronic mail address, or

(ii) to an electronic filing system website and an e-mail message is sent to the recipient by the electronic filing system that the legal paper has been filed and is available for review on the system's website.

NOTE: Upon the electronic filing of a legal paper other than original process, the electronic filing system may automatically send notice of the filing to all parties who have agreed to service by electronic transmission or whose e-mail address is included on an appearance or prior legal paper filed in connection with the action. If the electronic filing system sends notice of such filing, the party filing the legal paper only need serve those parties who are not served by the electronic filing system.

An electronic mail address set forth on letterhead is not a sufficient basis under this rule to permit electronic service of legal papers.

(3) Copies of all Notice, Orders or Judgments from the Court in any action shall be served by electronic transmission through the Electronic Filing System to all parties who have previously submitted electronic filings in the same case. In the event that a party or parties have not yet submitted electronic filing in a particular case, then the Prothonotary shall provide notice by facsimile, other electronic means or by forwarding a hard copy to said party or parties.

Adopted October 30, 2014, effective December 1, 2014

PETITIONS AND ANSWERS

Rule 206.1. Petitions

In addition to petitions to open and for non pros, petition practice shall also be applicable to petitions to transfer venue on grounds of forum non conveniens and petitions which seek the issuance of a rule to serve the interest of justice. See Pa.R.C.P. 206.1(a)(2)

Rule 206.4(c). Rules to Show Cause.

Cumberland County hereby adopts Pa.R.C.P. 206.5 as the procedure governing rules to show cause. The issuance of rules to show cause will be discretionary with the court upon presentation of a petition seeking the same.

(1) A petition for a rule to show cause shall be filed with the Prothonotary who shall docket the petition and forward same to the Court Administrator for assignment to a Judge.

(2) Upon a grant of a rule to show cause an order shall be issued in accordance with Pa.R.C.P. 206.5 governing the requirements for an answer, the scheduling of depositions, and the manner in which argument will be schedule.

(3) The procedures with regard to rules to show cause shall also comply with the requirements with respect to motions, generally, set forth in Rule 208.3(a).

Rule 208.3(a). Motions.

All motions and petitions shall be initially presented to the Prothonotary who shall forward same to the Court Administrator for assignment to a Judge for disposition.

(1) All motions submitted to the Court shall be in writing and shall prominently indicate the individual attorney responsible for the matter. Where that attorney is not the one who personally submits the papers, the names of both attorneys shall be clearly indicated.

(2) The motion shall state whether or not a judge has ruled upon any other issue in the same or related matter, and, if so, shall specify the judge and the issue.

(3) A proposed order or decree shall be prepared by counsel and affixed to the front of each petition or motion submitted to the Court. Where the Court cannot make an ex parte determination of the matter, the proposed order shall be in the nature of a rule to show cause why relief sought ought not to be granted.

(4) The Judge to whom a motion has been assigned shall, thereafter, by order, schedule such briefing and argument as shall be deemed necessary.

(5) Except as provided in Rules 1028(c), 1034(a), and 1035.2(a), no petition or motion, including those relating to depositions and discovery, shall be placed on an argument court list unless directed by the Judge assigned thereto.

(6) Where notice of the entry of any order is required under Pa.R.C.P. 236, the petitioner or moving party shall include in the proposed order the names of the persons and/or attorneys who are required to be notified and to provide duplicate copies of the proposed order with stamped envelopes addressed to the said persons and/or attorneys.

(7) All motions regarding discovery in civil cases including, but not limited to, motions to compel, for protective orders, and for sanctions, shall be filed with the Prothonotary who will transmit the motion/petition to the Court Administrator for assignment to a judge. Any answer or response to a discovery order or rule shall be filed, initially, with the Court Administrator who shall refer same to the judge assigned prior to filing with the Prothonotary.

(8) Hybrid Representation. In the event that a party who is represented by counsel of record attempts to file a motion, petition, answer or similar item on his or her own, the court will not docket the item but instead forward it to the counsel of record for such action as he or she deems appropriate on behalf of his or her client.

(9) All motions and petitions shall contain a paragraph indicating that the concurrence of any opposing counsel of record was sought and the response of said counsel; provided, that this requirement shall not apply to preliminary objections, motions for judgment on the pleadings, motions for summary judgment, petitions to open or strike judgments, and motions for post-trial relief.

PRETRIAL CONFERENCE

Rule 212-1. For each term of court a pretrial conference for all cases on the civil trial list shall be held on Wednesday of the third week before civil trial week.

Note: This rule is derived from former Rule 203-1.

Adopted June 17, 1976, amended January 21, 1977, effective February 1, 1977; amended July 21, 1986, effective January 1, 1987; amended December 1, 1991, effective December 1, 1991; amended April 1, 1995, effective April 30, 1995.

Rule 212-2. The pretrial conference shall be attended by the attorney who will try the case. In the event that the attorney fails to attend the pretrial conference, he shall not be permitted to try the case.

Note: This rule is derived from former Rule 206(b).

Adopted June 17, 1976, effective July 1, 1976.

Rule 212-3. Any case in which the trial attorney fails to appear for the pretrial conference may be placed at the foot of the list or stricken from it. The court may impose alternative or additional appropriate sanctions on the party or counsel failing to appear.

Note: This rule is derived from former Rule 206(2).

Adopted June 17, 1976, effective July 1, 1976.

PRETRIAL MEMORANDUM

Rule 212-4. Each party to a civil action shall submit a pretrial memorandum to the Court Administrator and serve a copy on all other parties, no later than Friday prior to the pretrial conference. The memorandum shall set forth in the following order:

- 1) A statement of the basic facts as to liability.
- 2) A statement of the basic facts as to damages.

- 3) A statement as to the principal issues of liability and damages.
- 4) A summary of legal issues regarding admissibility of testimony, exhibits or any other matter, and legal authorities relied on.
- 5) The identity of witnesses to be called.
- 6) A list of exhibits with brief identification of each.
- 7) The current status of settlement negotiations including a statement as to whether an Alternative Dispute Resolution option has been utilized.

Adopted and effective August 28, 1981.

Amended December 1, 1991, effective December 1, 1991.

Amended February 5, 2010, effective July 1, 2010.

CALL OF CIVIL TRIAL LIST

Rule 213-1. For each term of court the civil trial list shall be called on Tuesday of the fourth week before civil trial week. Any case not answered at the first call, shall, at the option of the court, be placed at the foot of the list or stricken from it.

Note: This rule amends prior rule by dispensing with the second call of the list.

Adopted January 31, 1977, effective February 1, 1977

Amended December 1, 1991, effective December 1, 1991.

Rule 213-2. At the call of the trial list, counsel for all parties shall indicate that discovery has been completed, that Alternative Dispute Resolution options have been considered and, if agreed to, have been completed or will be completed so as not to delay trial, and that the case is otherwise ready for trial in all respects. Any case not ready for trial in all respects shall, at the option of the court, be placed at the foot of the list or stricken from it.

Adopted August 21, 1980, effective August 21, 1980.

Amended April 1, 1995, effective April 30, 1995.

Amended February 5, 2010, effective July 1, 2010.

TRIAL

Rule 214-1. A case shall be listed for trial only by filing a praecipe in duplicate directing the Prothonotary to list the case for trial. The party listing the case for trial shall provide forthwith a copy of the praecipe to all counsel. The praecipe shall be in form prescribed by the Prothonotary.

Note: This rule is derived from former Rule 213.

Adopted October 6, 1978, effective October 15, 1978.

Rule 214-2. The trial list for cases at law shall close seven (7) weeks before the first day of trials. Trial lists shall be prepared by the Prothonotary in which the cases shall be arranged in the order of their listing. Copies of each trial list shall be made available to members of the Bar.

Note: This rule is derived from former Rule 213.

Adopted October 6, 1978, effective October 15, 1978
amended November 16, 1987, effective January 1, 1988.

Rule 214-3. Where a case is listed for trial by direction of the Court, notice of such listing shall be given to counsel by the Prothonotary.

Note: This rule is derived from former Rule 312.

Adopted October 6, 1978, effective October 15, 1978.

Rule 215-1. Non-Jury Trials.

This is an effort by the court to remove civil non-jury cases from the call of the civil trial list. If litigants to a case know that it will be a non-jury trial, they simply may file a praecipe with the Prothonotary, who will forward same to the Court Administrator's Office. The Court Administrator will assign the case to a judge immediately. This is somewhat similar to our procedure in equity cases. The hope is that non-jury trials might be scheduled more quickly and efficiently in this manner, instead of having to wait for the call of the civil trial list.

Adopted May 28, 1996; Effective August 1, 1996

Rule 223-1. In all trials the order of procedure shall be as follows: The counsel for the affirmative shall open his case and state the facts and, if necessary, the principles of law involved so that the relevancy of the facts may be understood, but without argument. Thereafter, the opposing counsel may open his case and proceed in like manner or may reserve his right to open until after the affirmative case in chief. If reserved, the counsel for the affirmative shall call witnesses for examination and cross-examination. If not reserved, the counsel for the affirmative shall present his case in chief at the close of the affirmative case. Closing arguments shall be in inverse order of the opening statements. Unless specifically allowed, no opening statement or summation shall exceed thirty (30) minutes.

Note: This rule is derived from former Rule 209.

Adopted September 21, 1953
amended October 6, 1978, effective October 15, 1978.

Rule 223-2. Upon the return of the jury to the courtroom, the judge shall examine the written verdict. If irregular, the judge shall further instruct the jury and send it back for further deliberation. If the written verdict is in proper form, regular and valid, the judge shall hand it to the Prothonotary who shall inquire of the foreman:

"Have you reached a verdict?"

Upon an affirmative response, the Prothonotary shall inquire of the foreman:

"What is your verdict?"

Thereupon the foreman shall pronounce the verdict.

Upon demand for a poll being made, the Prothonotary shall inquire of each juror separately as to his or her verdict. The Court shall instruct the Prothonotary as to the form of the question after consultation with counsel if desired.

If no demand for a poll is made or if the poll shows a legal verdict, the Prothonotary shall enter the verdict and shall inquire of the jury in the usual form as to whether or not the same is their verdict.

Note: This rule was formerly Rule 223.2.

Adopted September 21, 1953
amended October 6, 1978, effective October 15, 1978.

INACTIVE CASES NOT AT ISSUE

Rule 228. rescinded September 4, 2003

LAND USE APPEALS

Rule 230. Disposition

1. Contemporaneously with the notice of the filing of the complete return of the record, the Prothonotary shall forward the appeal to Court Administration for assignment of a Judge of the Court of Common Pleas. The Court Administrator shall assign appeals to the Judges on a rotating basis.
2. The procedure for disposition of matters at argument court shall be as follows:

- 7) References in any brief to parts of the record appearing in a reproduced record shall be to the pages and the lines in the reproduced record where said parts appear, e.g., "(r. pg. 30 l. 15)." If references are made in the briefs to parts of the original record not reproduced, the references shall be to the parts of the record involved, e.g., "(Answer p. 7)," "(Motion for Summary Judgment p. 2)."
- 8) Counsel or any party presenting oral argument shall be limited to fifteen (15) minutes unless prior permission is granted to extend argument in a complex case.

SUMMARY WARRANTS

Rule 456

1. Central Booking is available during defined time periods to hold defendants with summary warrants that police encounter during their normal course of duty or constables executing warrants issued to them directly by a Magisterial District Judge.
2. Defined hours: Sunday through Thursday during non-court hours. Central Booking will not accept defendants with summary warrants on Friday, Saturday, and County holidays. At any time during the defined hours that Central Booking may experience full capacity, police and/or constables will be informed of a temporary suspension of acceptance of Summary Warrant defendants over the 911 Police Radio System.
3. This policy does not pertain to juvenile defendants with summary warrants. Juvenile defendants with summary warrants will not be accepted at Central Booking.
4. In the event that Central Booking is able to ascertain that the defendant has medical issues that put them at risk during holding, Central Booking will issue a Payment Determination Hearing Notice and release the defendant. An officer or constable serving a summary warrant should ask the defendant if they require life-sustaining medication over the period of time until the defendant might be released (the next day) and attempt to obtain that medicine for the defendant.
5. If the defendant suffers a medical episode while in Central Booking, the defendant will be released to EMS.
6. Central Booking will complete an Intake form on each defendant brought in on a summary warrant so that updated contact information is collected.
7. Warrant Procedures:
 - a. Summary Warrants for Non-Payment:
 - Per this policy, warrants not issued to a constable for service by an MDJ should be verified on AOPC <https://ujportal.pacourts.us/> .

- For verified active warrants, the defendant's case attached to the warrant can be located at <https://ujportal.pacourts.us/> by accessing ePay. You will need the defendant's first name, last name, and DOB. Select MDJ cases and the case associated with the warrant.
- The defendant must pay the amount necessary to bring the payment plan on the warrant's case up to date. If the delinquent payment amount cannot be made in full at the time of service, the defendant may be transported to Central Booking.
- For constables: A Fee bill must be attached to the warrant paperwork at Central Booking in order to facilitate proper addition of fees to the defendant's case. Central Booking will forward the Fee bill to the Magisterial District Judge for review and assessment.
- The defendant will be held at Central Booking until either a). A release amount as defined in this policy can be paid, or b). the issuing Magisterial District Judge is informed and makes a determination of action.
- Release Policy: The Central Booking Center will release defendants immediately when the following release amounts are met:
 - The release amount will be based on the delinquent payment amount as determined through AOPC's ePay system. If the full amount of the delinquent payment plan is under $200, delinquent payment amount must be paid in full.
 - If the full amount of the delinquent payment plan is $200 or over, the minimum amount of $200 or 50% of the total, whichever is greater, must be paid.
 - If the defendant has multiple summary warrants, the total of all warrants delinquent payment plans will determine the release amount. If the total of all of the amounts owed on all cases exceeds $1000.00, the defendant must pay a minimum of $500. That amount should be put towards the oldest case first, next oldest, etc.
- A chart of release amounts is attached to this policy.
- If the release amount is met, but bringing the payment plan into current status is not equal to the full amount owed on the warrant, the defendant will be given a Payment Determination Hearing Notice scheduling such hearing on a weekday and time selected by each Magisterial District Judge for their cases. This date shall be not less than 2 weeks following release (providing at least 10 days notice per Rule 456).
- Central Booking will email a copy of the receipt and the hearing notice, if applicable, to the Magisterial District Judge to notify them of the payment and release. The Magisterial District Judge shall clear the warrant.
- If the defendant is not able to make the release amount, Central Booking may still collect a lesser amount towards the summary warrant total. The defendant will be held until court hours the next morning and the issuing Magisterial District Judge is informed and makes a determination of action.
- No defendant shall be committed without following the steps outlined in Title 42 Pa. C.S. 4137 for sections (a3) and (a4). After issuance of a warrant, bail and a contempt hearing shall be set. If imprisonment is a possibility, hearings should be set on Public Defender day. For District Courts that regularly schedule hearings in only the morning or afternoon on PD day, select a time that corresponds with the Public Defender's normal schedule (am or pm).

b. Summary Warrants for Failure to Respond:

- Release Policy: The Central Booking Center will release defendants immediately when the following release amounts are met:
 - 1) For a guilty plea, the release amount will be based on the total amount of fines and costs if stated on the warrant. If the full amount of the fines and costs is under $200, the amount must be paid in full.
 - 2) If the full amount of the fines and costs is $200 or over, the minimum amount of $200 or 50% of the total, whichever is greater, must be paid.

If the total of all of the amounts owed on all cases exceeds $1000.00, the defendant must pay a minimum of $500. That amount should be put towards the oldest case first, next oldest, etc.
 - 4) If the release amount is met, but the full amount of fines and costs is not paid, the defendant will be given a Payment Determination Hearing Notice for a date and time selected by each Magisterial District Judge for their cases for the following week.
 - 5) For not guilty pleas, 100% of the collateral, if stated on the warrant, must be paid.

- If a defendant has summary warrants for Failure to Pay and Failure to Respond, apply the appropriate policy to each type, separately.
 - Central Booking will email a copy of the signed receipt, signed plea paperwork, and any hearing notices to the Magisterial District Judge to notify them of the payment and release. The Magisterial District Judge shall clear the warrant.
 - If the defendant cannot meet the release amount or the collateral, the Magisterial District Judge shall conduct a bench warrant hearing. If the Magisterial District Judge is unavailable, please refer to c. (Release without payment).
- c. Release without payment: Central Booking will email the Magisterial District Office that a defendant is being held on a summary warrant. This date shall be not less than 2 weeks following release (providing at least 10 days notice per Rule 456).
- d. Collection of Money:
- Warrants must clearly establish the total amount owed or collateral amount. If a Failure to Respond Warrant has no fines and costs or collateral listed, you should accept the guilty plea or not guilty plea without payment and forward to the Magisterial District Judge per the policy below (“Upon facilitating payment” and “When a warrant is served and payment is facilitated”). The amount paid shall be “warrant satisfied”.
 - Each Police Department may determine if they will facilitate the monetary satisfaction of the warrant as described below. If a department does not want to participate in the payment process, the defendants may be transported to Central Booking.
 - For Failure to Pay: Police or Constables serving a warrant and facilitating collection may assist the defendant to make a payment through AOPC’s ePay (<https://ujportal.pacourts.us/>).

 - 2) Date
 - 3) Officer/Constable Name and Signature
 - 4) Identifying Badge #/Constable Id
 - 5) Signature of Defendant

email that the warrant has been served, and the amount paid, so that the warrant can be cleared from the system. The Magisterial District Judge shall clear the warrant. A copy of the receipt must be forwarded to the Magisterial District Judge.
