Cumberland County to Host Open House for Transitions at Claremont

Cumberland County, PA- Claremont Nursing and Rehabilitation Center (CNRC) will be hosting an open house event on January 15, 2015 at 1:00 pm for Transitions at Claremont, a new short term rehabilitation unit. This preview event will offer exclusive tours of the new facility before it officially opens.

Transitions at Claremont is part of the CNRC campus, but offers rehabilitation services in a dedicated 39 bed unit. With highly trained staff and 7 day a week therapy, Transitions focuses on quality care that will take its residents from hospital to home as quickly as possible.

The construction of Transitions at Claremont began in the Spring of 2014 and will open soon once a series of standard and comprehensive Department of Health inspections are completed. For more information on this state of the art unit visit www.ccpa.net/cnrc.
