Cumberland County Employee Receives Award for Efforts with the Homeless

Cumberland County, PA— Kellie Crawford, a Case Manager with Cumberland County Aging & Community Services' Homeless Assistance Program, was named the 2014 Regional Homeless Advocate of the Year for Pennsylvania's Region 3, which includes Adams, Cumberland, Franklin, Huntingdon, Juniata, Mifflin, Perry and York counties. Kellie works tirelessly with families facing extreme crisis and always goes the extra mile with her clients. She works diligently to ensure all of their needs are met. Kellie is an invaluable resource always continuing to educate herself on local resources available to families. Many clients keep in touch with Kellie, which is a true testament of her work helping families out of crisis and providing them tools for future success.
