Cumberland County Employee Receives Award for Innovation

Cumberland County, PA — Susan Carbaugh, Director of the Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities Program at Cumberland County, received the Pennsylvania Association of County Administrators of Mental Health and Developmental Services Innovation Award for 2014. The Innovation Award recognizes extraordinary, creative or transformative initiatives to sustain improvements in the oversight, administration or service delivery in mental health, intellectual disability or early intervention systems. Susan has been involved in the inception and design of the Pathways Academy Program, a program designed to help people with an intellectual disability learn the skills they need to be able to live on their own in the community. Susan has been truly instrumental in the success of the program.
