Cumberland County Office of Aging & Community Services Seeks Advisory Board Member

Cumberland County, PA - The Cumberland County Office of Aging and Community Services is seeking candidates interested in serving on their Advisory Board. The Advisory Board is comprised of private citizens appointed by the County Commissioners to provide advice and direction to the Office of Aging & Community Services on programs and services provided for senior citizens. The Advisory Board meets on the third Friday of each month except the months of November and December which are a combined meeting. These meetings are held at the Aging and Community Services Office located at 1100 Claremont Road, Carlisle, beginning at Noon. The meetings are usually completed by 2:00 PM.

The Advisory Board currently has one vacancy but is interested in gathering information from individuals who are interested in serving in the future. It is a preference that Advisory Board members are age 60 or over, but not a requirement. All that is required is an interest in serving senior citizens and a willingness to attend meetings regularly to participate in the discussions that take place.

If you are interested in being considered for an appointment to the Office of Aging Advisory Board, please contact Terry Barley, the Director of the Office of Aging and Community Services at 240-6113 or 1-888-697-0371, Extension 6113. Or email Heather DeWire at hdewire@ccpa.net and request a Personal Summary Form. For more information about the services provided by the Cumberland County Office of Aging & Community Services, please visit the County's website at www.ccpa.net/aging.
