VOTERS INDUCTED INTO VOTER HALL OF FAME

Cumberland County, PA - Five local voters were inducted into the Pennsylvania Voter Hall of Fame at the Cumberland County Commissioners' public meeting today. On behalf of Governor Tom Wolf and Secretary of the Commonwealth Pedro Cortes, the Commissioners presented the certificates to Mr. and Mrs. Elmer and Jean Warner, Ms Mary Troutman, Ms Vivian Shatto, and posthumously, to Mr. John Fralish on behalf of his mother, Ms Gloria Fralish.

Ms. Gloria Fralish, formerly of Middlesex Township, first registered and voted in Cumberland County in 1970. Mr. Elmer Warner, Jr and his wife, Mrs. Jean Warner, of South Middleton Township, each first registered and voted in 1955. Ms. Mary Jane Troutman of Silver Spring Township first registered to vote in Harrisburg, PA, and voted in Cumberland County for the first time in 1969. Ms. Vivian Shatto, of West Pennsboro Township, first registered and voted in Cumberland County in 1965.

Senator Pat Vance, 31st Senatorial District, and Ben Junkin, on behalf of Senator John Eichelberger, 30th Senatorial District, were at the ceremony honoring these voters and their families. Also at the ceremony were Representative Will Tallman, 193rd Legislative District and Representative Stephen Bloom, 199th Legislative District.

These five voters join an elite group of Pennsylvanians who have voted in every Election for at least fifty continuous years. To become a member of this group, voters must complete an application, found on the Department of State website, or picked up from the Cumberland County Bureau of Elections. The application and voting history are then verified by the Bureau of Elections and sent to the Pennsylvania Department of State for certification.
