Cumberland County Sheriff's Office Staff Participates in "Goatees for a Good Cause"

Cumberland County, Pennsylvania– Cumberland County Sheriff Ron Anderson and several of his goateed deputies presented a donation this morning at the Cumberland County Courthouse. In October, Anderson and his staff decided they wanted to do something to benefit a local non-profit and decided on the "Goatees for a Good Cause" program. During the month of November deputies were allowed to grow goatees if they donated a designated amount each pay period to the cause. In total 10 staff members participated and decided they wanted to donate the money to Carlisle C.A.R.E.S., a shelter and resource center for the homeless.

The mission of the Office of the Sheriff is to enforce court orders issued from the Cumberland County Court of Common Pleas and to maintain peace throughout the county by enforcement of the Commonwealth's : Crimes Code, Vehicle Code, and the Pennsylvania Rules of Court.
