Cumberland County Commissioners Take Action on Inappropriate Email Use

Cumberland County, PA – In response to information regarding the use of Cumberland County’s email system for inappropriate activities, the Board of Commissioners has issued a written reprimand to an elected official and has shared details regarding the email use with the District Attorney’s office, to determine if any legal action may be warranted.

In addition, the Commissioner’s approved a new County policy regarding appropriate use of County time and resources by employees and elected officials.

These documents are available without the need for a Right to Know request. Please contact the Commissioner’s office for copies.
