House Fire Under Control

Cumberland County, PA –The Cumberland County Department of Public Safety (DPS) reports the house fire this morning in South Middleton Township is under control. The fire, in the 500 block of Zion Road, was first reported by a passer-by, who noticed flames coming from the home at 8:20 a.m. No one was in the home at the time of the fire.

The two-alarm fire brought in companies from around the local area. Citizens Fire Company was in command of on-site operations.

One firefighter was evaluated by EMS at the scene for a minor knee injury.

The fire was listed as controlled at 9:16 a.m. and the American Red Cross has been called to assist the family.
