Cumberland County Public Safety Raise Money for Breast Cancer

Cumberland County, Pa. – The Cumberland County Department of Public Safety (DPS) recently presented a check for $415 to the Pennsylvania Breast Cancer Alliance. The department raised the funds by selling T-shirts. All the funds raised will stay within Pennsylvania and be used in the fight to find a cure.

Staff members of the DPS will wear their shirts throughout October in honor of Breast Cancer Awareness Month.

“In some way, we have all been touched by breast cancer,” said Scott Winters, dispatcher with the DPS and organizer of the fundraiser. “We all know someone, a relative, friend or co-worker, who has battled this disease. This fundraiser was one way the DPS can show our support for those battling breast cancer and our hope for a cure.”
