Claremont Hosts Christmas for Veterans

Cumberland County, Pa. – More than 40 Veterans from Claremont Nursing and Rehabilitation Center (CNRC) were recently treated to an early Christmas by the Cumberland County Honor Guard. The Veterans received a catered lunch, music from the Sweet Adelines, presents and a visit from Santa.

The Honor Guard has hosted the event for more than 18 years and sees it as a way to say thank you and bring some Holiday cheer to Claremont's vets.

"Our Veterans have given so much for our Country," said Neal Delisanti, director of the Cumberland County Veterans Affairs Office. "The Honor Guard works to raise enough funds to give the Claremont vets a great Christmas and to personally thank these vets for their service."

"Our Veterans look forward to this event all year," said Nancy Hahn, Claremont's activity director. "It's a highlight for them. They enjoy the meal, meeting with the Honor Guard and of course, getting a gift from Santa."

An all-volunteer organization, the Honor Guard provides military funeral honors for deceased veterans interred in Cumberland County, participates in patriotic events and assists Veterans with transportation to medical appointments. For more information on the Cumberland County Honor Guard, please contact the Cumberland County Department of Veterans Affairs at (717) 240-6178 or email vetaffairs@ccpa.net.

CNRC, recently named a five star facility by the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services, is a community-based skilled nursing and rehabilitation center with an open admissions policy. The 282 bed facility provides advanced therapeutic nursing care for a variety of needs. Established in 1829, the county-owned facility has a long-standing tradition of serving the Cumberland County community.
