Claremont To Host First Community Day With Family Friendly Entertainment And Health Related Vendors

Carlisle PA – Food, facility tours and educational speakers will highlight Claremont Nursing and Rehabilitation Center’s first Community Day on Saturday, Sept. 22, 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the center, located at 1000 Claremont Road.

The day will feature a variety of health-related speakers, health care vendors, pet rescue groups, the Cumberland County Office of Aging and several senior service groups. The Cumberland County Sheriff’s Office will feature its K-9 unit with demonstrations and the Middlesex Township Police Department will be taking photos for parents to create ID records for their children.

“We want to celebrate and strengthen our relationship with the surrounding communities,” said Helen Schultz, director of admissions and marketing “We created this day as a way to give something back to our community.”

Visitors will be able to tour the facility and meet the staff. Food will be available for purchase and the center will provide free snow cones and popcorn.

For more information, contact the center at 717-243-2031 or 877-243-2031.

First established in 1829, Claremont Nursing and Rehabilitation Center, named a five star facility by the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services, is a community-based skilled nursing and rehabilitation center with an open admissions policy.
