Some Cumberland County Residents to See Temporary Polling Place Location Changes For Primary

Carlisle, PA – Cumberland County residents who vote in nine precincts will have to vote at alternate locations for the Primary Election, on June 2. The modifications are due to the Primary date change due to the COVID-19 Pandemic and these areas will be used for this election only.

“Some of the locations had to be moved because they were in senior living centers, apartments or moved because of scheduled construction,” said Bethany Salzarulo, director Bureau of Elections. “We tried to keep the new locations as close to the previous polling places, for convenience and to avoid confusion.”

To ensure everyone’s safety at each polling location, the county will be abiding by the Pennsylvania Department of Health and CDC guidelines, wiping down all voting machines and common areas, and providing hand sanitizer for voters. The county will be enforcing social distancing and recommending that all voters wear masks while at polling places.
