Unofficial Mail-In and Absentee Results Are In

Carlisle, PA – The Cumberland County Bureau of Elections today completed the unofficial count of more than 31,000 mail-in and absentee ballots from the June 2 Primary Election.

“My thanks to a great team of professionals who worked tirelessly to count all 31,766 mail-in and absentee ballots,” said Bethany Salzarulo, Cumberland County Bureau of Elections Director. “This new process of tabulating ballots was a detail oriented process that took time, patience and accuracy.”

With more than 27,600 in person votes, the mail-in and absentee ballots were the majority of votes cast in Cumberland County.

County officials had eight days after the Primary Election to complete the count of mail-in and absentee ballots.
